

SECTION A : Attempt all questions

1. Choose the sentences or words which demonstrate social cohesion

(10 marks)

- a. Community work (Umuganda)
- b. Health insurance as Mutuelle de santé
- c. Individualism
- d. Reconciliation
- e. Discrimination
- f. Forgiveness
- g. Social injustice
- h. Genocide ideology
- i. Inclusiveness
- j. Domination

2. Look at the questions and provide the answers (20 marks)

- a. As an individual, what activities are you responsible at home?
- b. Think of the various social groups that you belong to. Why do you belong to each of these groups? Explain your answer.
- c. As a student of Senior 4 identify consequences of peer pressure positively and negatively
- d. Manipulation involves influencing or controlling feelings of others.

Explain.

3. What are the benefits of participating in sports, leisure and competitions? (10 marks)

4. List the elements of communication (15 marks)

5. Establish the difference between verbal communication and non-verbal communication (10 marks)

6. As an individual what would be possible sources of income? (10 marks)

7. Compare and contrast formal and informal education (10 marks)

SECTION B: Attempt any One question.

8. A. Read the case study below then answer the questions that follow. (15 marks)

Gasore had a shop in his village. He had to travel for long distances to get goods to sell in his shop. For this reason, he sold the goods at this shop at double the expected price. Most villagers did not like this but had no other alternative.

However, Gasore was very kind to his customers. He always packed the goods they brought for them with a smile. He also sold only approved goods and refused to deal in goods bought in the black market. For this reason, the villagers loved him.

Questions

- a. Identify any unfair operating practices that Gasore engaged in.
- b. What are the fair operating practices that Gasore practiced?
- c. In what way do you think the fair business practices benefitted the people of Gasore?

B. Read the story below then answer the questions that follow (15 marks)

There once lived a king who ruled in far island. He made all laws for his people. He distributed land to his people and dictated who could own what. He argued that everything in the island belonged to him. For this reason, he would take people's cattle for his private party. He would also take their land and give to foreigners who brought him goods. This made the people of the island unhappy.

Questions

- a. Do you think the king respected property rights? Explain your answer.
- b. What are the effects of not respecting property rights?

END!!!!